

operation dollar and other vignettes

- Home
- About
- Contact

OPERATION DOLLAR

The first vignette

The Bank which would have liked to have said less

6/5/2016

0 Comments

Another dark but amusing tale from Dumfries

So there I am driving through Dumfries town centre wondering where my next crust would come from when I espy my friend Gobert loading filing cabinets into his pickup truck from the building which then housed the TSB bank in Church Crescent .

Ah! A ray of sunshine me thought, I much needed filing cabinets to take care of a growing forest of paperwork generated by private dicky work and other things. Thus I sped to Goberts scrap yard and awaited therein for his arrival with his newly acquired redundant filing cabinets which he did of course.

Before he alighted the vehicle I asked if the cabinets were for sale and how much did he require, fifteen pounds he said without any hesitation. "An honest price quote I

William C

June 201

All

 RSS

- Home
- About
- Contact

×

